A British Victory

LONDON Dec 5—Gen Roberts has gained a complete victory over the Ameers forces capturing Peiwar Khotal and all the Afghan cannon The enemy's loss is heavy British Loss 80 killed and wounded Capt Kelso of the artillery and Capt Anderson of the Hone rs are among the killed

Gen Roberts telegraphs from Peiwar Khotal under date of the 3d as follows During the night of December 1st the Afghans occupied the heights in front of the enemy's position at daybreak of the 2d when the 72d Highlanders and 5th Goorkhas gallantly drove the Afghans from several positions They after wards endeavored to reach Peiwar Khotal But the assault could not be delivered on that side We then threatened the enemy in the rear and attacked and carried Peiwar Khotal at about 1 o'clock in the afternoon The enemy had on the previous evening received reinforcements of four regiments They fought desperately and their artillery was well served Their defeat however was complete We captured 18 guns and a large quantity of ammunition Our loss was moderate considering the number of our opponents and the difficult nature of the country Major Anderson of the Pioneers, was killed Gen Cobbe and Lieut Munro of the 72d Highlanders were wounded Our men behaved admirably We shall move towards Shutar Gardan pass Thursday Dec 5th

Onward to Cabul.

LONDON Dec 5—The London Daily News says To the column of which Gen Roberts is commander has been committed the task of forcing the Peiwar pass This is the central pass of the three by which the British army is marching upon Cabul Candahar and Herat Browne's force has penetrated beyond Jellalabad and he has sent a brigade for forage and to reconnoitre through both the great and little Kyber pass so that he virtually has now no obstacle between him and Cabul The force of General Baddulph may be called the left wing of the army that is marching through the Quettah pass toward Candahar through a comparatively friendly country The important victory of General Roberts opens up the entire country of Cabul to the British The villages of Pe war Kotland Shutar and Gurdan are situated southeast from Cabul and are on the line of one of the routes leading from the ameer's capital into British India The battle fought by Gen Roberts was evidently conducted on scientific principles considering his own small loss of less than 100 men and comparing it with that of his opponents from whom he also captured 15 cannon Gen Browne is doubtless waiting for the support of Gen Roberts force before making a push direct for the capital by the better known route of Khyber pass

Meeting of Parliament

LONDON Dec 5—Parliament convened to-day The Queen's speech read in the House of Lords was unusually short Her majesty regrets being compelled to summon parliament earlier than usual but the action of the ameer of Afghanistan compelled the sending of an expedition into his territory, and the earliest opportunity had been taken to call parliament together and making to it communication required by law Papers on the subject will be laid before parliament Assurance from all foreign powers are friendly, and there is every reason to believe that arrangements for the pacification of Europe, made by the treaty of Berlin will be satisfactorily carried out After full deliberations upon matters which have led to the early meeting of parliament, and after suitable recess parliament should proceed to the consideration of measures for public benefit which will then be laid before it

AN OFFICIAL STATEMENT OF THE WAY A FABULOUS FRAUDULENT DEMOCRATIC MAJORITY WAS CURED IN CHARLESTON

The statement made by ex Congressman Mackey of Charleston, S C and widely published at the north that Mr Daggett forman of The Charleston News and Courier put 2 000 fraudulent ballots into one box at the late election has received official confirmation from the United States supervisor stationed at the poll where Daggett was It will be remembered that for this statement a suit for libel was brought against Mr Mackey The supervisor relates that an hour before the poll close I Mr Daggett entered the room and seated himself on the table near the ballot box On several occasions on looking back after the attention of the supervisor had been momentarily attracted by persons approaching and questioning him he discovered Mr Daggett stuffing packages of tissue tickets into the box At one time the latter tried to insert so large a package that one of the Democratic managers went to his relief and pushed it through into the box with his pencil For an hour Mr Daggett continued to do this kind of work as he could find the opportunity and he had the help of accomplices who stood so as to cover him as much as possible from the eyes of the supervisor The latter reports that as a result of this work, either by Daggett or others 2 404 tissue tickets were put into a box a this particular poll

THE NATIONAL BANKS

The discussion now going on about the national banks renders it important that correct information in regard to the system be disseminated and this is supplied by the report of John Jay Knox comptroller of the currency This document just issued is a complete presentation of the leading features of the system and a comparison between it and others In answer to the objection that the national banks are a favored class enjoying special privileges at the cost of the people he says

Under the law then, as it now stands any number of persons not less than five in any part of the country may organize a national bank and receive circulating notes equal in amount to 90 per cent of such capital the law discriminating in the latter respect only against the large institutions no bank since the passage of the act of July 1, 1870 being entitled to circulation to excess of $1 000 000 A bank having a capital of between $500 000 and $1 000 000 can receive in circulating notes but 90 per cent thereon if between $1 000 000 and $3 000 000 it can receive but 75 per cent and if over $3 000 000 but 10 per cent Since the passage of the act of June 20 1874 the national banks so far from considering the privilege of issuing circulation a profitable monopoly have voluntarily surrendered $55 ...3 or $ 9 463 467 more of their notes than have been issued to all of the banks organized since that date and 144 banks with capital stock amounting to $10 317 000 have gone into voluntary liquidation with a circulation of $9 130 7 5 The capital stock of the national banks is not largely in the hands of capitalists.

Among the shareholders may be found persons in every station of life and a vast numbers of women and children rely upon the successful management of these institutions for their support. The elaborate tables which appear in the comptroller's report for 1876 showed that there were then only ten persons anywhere who held as much as $50 000 each of national bank stock that more than one half of the whole number of shareholders in these associations held each but $1 000 or less of such stock, and that taking the whole number of shareholders together the average amount held by each one was but $1 100 Of shareholders owning not more than $1 000 in each there were 5 246 in Massachusetts alone 2 764 in New York 3 682 in Pennsylvania 1 441 in Kentucky, 398 in Ohio 1 803 in Illinois, 852 in Georgia and 317 in Virginia. Of those holding the stock in amounts ranging between $2 000 and $3 000 there were 1 713 in the New England states 1 613 in the middle states 330 in the southern states, and 542 in the western states 13 319 shares of the stock of banks located in the eastern and middle states It is not probable that the shares of any other class of corporations in the country are more widely distributed among people of moderate means than are those of the national banks

The national banks have not at any time monopolized the business of banking nor do they do so at the present time. On July 31 of this year there were in existence more than 00 state and private banks having an aggregate capital of 29 mill ions of dollars and deposits of 43 millions These state and private banks are located in all of the principal cities and villages of the country and it is to be presumed that if the privilege of issuing circulating notes were great as it is persistently claimed to be these associations and individuals who are already engaged in the business of banking and who are ready to enter the national system would hasten to organize under that system The amount of interest accruing annually upon the bonds held by the national banks on October 1—less the tax paid by them upon their circulation—is $14 544 00, only, while the annual profit upon the entire circulation of the national banks is but $8 961,519 or less than two and one half per centum upon their capital as the 3 000 banks and bankers mentioned still continue to transact their business as state or private institutions it seems very clear that this annual profit of $8,000 only upon a capital of $100 000 does not present to them or any of them, a sufficient inducement to transfer their business to a national system The reason is obvious The laws governing the national banks contain numerous and burdensome restrictions to banker, and many and severe penalties On the one hand they authorize the issue of circulating notes but on the other they require that the business of banking shall be conducted under a uniform system which shall insure the greatest possible degree of safety to the depositor and holder of the circulating note It requires convertibility to the circulating note It on the other hand the right to issue circulating notes is given on the other wholesome restraints are insisted upon as a condition of that privilege These legal prohibitions and restrictions which are the compensations that the public receive from these corporations in return for their right to issue circulating notes are too numerous to be given here in detail

The amounts of taxation national and state annually for the last four years have been as follows

	National	State	Total
1874	$ 7 .56 068	$ 9 C30 3 6	$16 883,409
1875	7 317 531	10 060 12...	17 3.0 653
1876	7 076 087	9 ...1 782	16 777 870
1877	6 902 573	8 8.9 301	15 ...1 8...
Totals	$28 552 274	$38 ...1 484	$66 ...1 8...

The rate of taxation upon the banks in New York and other cities has averaged 5 per cent in the last five years

Since the national bank system was established only 60 banks have failed—the total capital being $27 015 000—the amount of claims proved being $24,488 .00—the estimated losses are but $6 414 ... The number of failures per year for the last fifteen years has been less than five and the average amount lost less than $400 000 By contrast the bank of Glasgow, which recently failed in Scotland had a capital and surplus of less than $8 000 000 and liabilities of more than $30 000 000 The deficiency in the assets is nearly $28 00 000 which sum times the loss of the creditors of the national banks during the 15 years since the system was established The losses by the failure of the savings banks of New York state alone in the last three years is more than half the losses of all the national banks in 15 years. The losses from the failures of state and private banks during the present year exceed the total loss from all national bank failures since the system was organized The profit of the national banks on circulation is very small—being only 1 per cent on the amount of capital stock invested more than could be obtained by loaning the same amount on available securities

Few persons have a just conception of the many advantages possessed by a homogeneous currency ally secured the issue of a single system redeemable at a common point and exempt from the discount occasioned by an irregularity of value in different localities Great pains have been taken to obtain an estimate of the amount of exchange issued annually upon New York by the western and southern states The amount drawn upon New York alone is estimated at nearly three thousand millions of dollars annually and it will not probably be an exaggeration to say that not less than four thousand millions of dollars are annually drawn by the west and south upon the east The amounts drawn upon each other by the banks in the commercial cities and states of the east is also great. In 18 the average cost of sending money eastern exchange upon New York was no less than from 1 to 1 per cent If this latter rate could be reduced the cost of exchange alone would be sixty millions annually while if the rate were but one half of one per cent which was the current rate in the state of New York in the year 1874 a loss in exchange of twenty millions annually would result as with all of the taxation on the issues of banks founded upon correct principles

REV HENRY MORGAN ON FAST YOUNG MEN AND FOLLOWERS IN BOSTON

From the Boston Herald Nov 18

Rev Henry Morgan delivered in Music hall last night his lecture on Fast Young Men Sins of High Life to a crowded house He said Not all of polygamy is centered in Utah It is possible that in Boston a man can break the seventh commandment be elected to the most honorable position civic or military keep two establishments and not a question asked? I pity not the right holders of the Globe theater for losing their investments They have encouraged the spectacular sensational half clad exhibitions of female orchestra There they have brought their wives and some that we are not their wives There are thousand clerks of Boston have taken their first downward step There scores of Harvard students came to witness and applaud the terpsichorean evolutions of Miss Emily Soldene I pity not the land owners for losing the rents and having the property come back on their hands I advise them to turn the theater into a hospital—a house of refuge, of mercy, for the fallen This should be its inscription He fell a thousand of Boston's most brilliant men This hospital commences on the spot where builder and player, proprietors and people went down to common ruin

In Boston there are 8 000 cyprians their average life is four years 2 000 die annually What a funeral procession! What are you going to do about it? What would I do? I would open a palace for them They like palaces It should be under the brow of Bunker Hill A stone palace now empty It has been adorned by Pond Chice Sibley Jack on and Co What would I do I would arrange the tempters and their 8 000 victims into a procession leading toward Charles own I would advertise the show

KNOTTY PHYSICS UPON HIS ADMINISTRATION—OUTLINE OF A SEVERE REVIEW IN THE NINETEENTH CENTURY FOR NOVEMBER

[From the N Y Evening Mail]

The fierce assaults upon Lord Beaconsfield and his policy of government continue and under the pungent title The Progress of Personal Rule Mr Henry Dunckley better known by his signature Verax," makes a very acute and scathing dissection of the prime minister and his method of directing the government, Mr Dunckley connects the policy of the prime minister with the fact that the recently published life of the Prince Consort shows that Baron Stockmar the early mentor of the queen and Prince carefully taught them that the sovereign ought to govern as well as reign that by the reform act the crown had been shorn of some of its rights and that the queen ought to use everything in her power to recover those rights In other words Stockmar strongly advocated personal government by the queen and not government by her ministers, Lord Beaconsfield Mr Dunckley maintains acting on what he perceives to be the wishes of the queen and agreeing with her in these opinions has undertaken to assert the prerogatives of the crown as they flourished in the time of the Stuarts It is time says says Mr Dunckley for the people of England to wake up for times of trouble are in store for them During those times of trouble many things may be changed, but one thing is certain The final upshot will not be favorable to the throne Minis ers violated the principles of the constitution outright when they ordered a body of troops to the Mediterranean

Mexico's Experience with Silver

[From the Philadelphia Record Dem]

Mexico is one of the countries where the double standard of gold and silver is maintained Both metals are an unlimited legal tender for all debts But the reduced price of silver as compared with gold has had the effect of driving gold out of the country Gold commands a premium of 14 to 18 per cent In this place held up to us by our neighbor republic we may see ourselves Like Mexico this country is a large producer of silver and gold and our markets are subject to all the fluctuations which shake the market for these products in that country As fast as our mints can turn out silver dollars, worth eighty five cents instead of 100 cents we are approximating to the condition of that country in procuring the substitution of the baser metal as the sole currency of the country The disastrous effects of the decline of silver from 56 pence per ounce to 48 pence have reached to every department of trade and industry in Mexico We are protected from similar trouble not by our superior wisdom but by the mechanical impossibility of swift progress in making fools of ourselves If our mints had been as capacious for mischief as our minds the troubles which prevail in Mexico would have been at our doors

A TIMELY WORK

The public health association at its session in Richmond has been discussing the physical causes of epidemical diseases and particularly of yellow fever One of the members of the association in remarking that these diseases spread and carry death by means of poisonous matter disseminated in many ways said For a population to be thus poisoned by its own pollution will one day be deemed ignominious and intolerable A Memphis journal hits the same idea in the remark, We've all been heroic now we've had enough of heroism let's have drainage The New York Tribune shows that the death rate in certain European cities from typhoid and malarial diseases, has been reduced by the reform of sewerage and house drainage the removal of cess pools and the supply of pure water from 70 to 60 per cent while the reduction of the death rate from scarlet fever made by the strict legal regulations for the disinfecting of houses and isolation of patients is as great as that made in the deaths from small pox by the practice of vaccination

These principles are gradually becoming known and established but they make slower progress than they ought in an age that boasts so loudly of its enlightenment It will be an incalculable gain for the human race when even the degree of knowledge now possessed on these subjects shall have driven out that fatal credulity and superstitious terror which have regarded these deadly maladies as visitations of divine displeasure, sent upon the children of men for some inscrutable purpose in the divine economy, and removable by appeals to Heaven instead of by intelligent, energetic and self reliant efforts of our own Discussion of this whole subject in the line pursued by the convention at Richmond will do a great deal of good. This convention is spoken of as the first step in our country in a work which in several of the countries of Europe has for many years been made a national service. We know as yet very little of the laws of the whole class of disorders to which yellow fever is allied but enough is known to prove that each has its own specific cause or germ, that each follows inexorably its own law of development that under certain conditions pestilence will prevail but that these conditions may be modified by human agency, and that it is through ignorance and neglect of sanitary precautions that pestilence has opportunity for its most deadly work

RENEWED EFFORT FOR CHEAP MONEY

The philosophers of cheap money in congress are full of wrath They propose to punish the national banks by withdrawing their circulation, because the said banks can not make the 85 cent silver dollar worth a full dollar in gold Then the bank circulation will have to be withdrawn Let it go The banks will not care much for it There is little profit in it to them anyway But after the bank bills are all retired the cheap silver dollar will be just where it is now. No penalties that congress can impose will help it. All people except the most incurable idealists know that no legislation can make a good dollar out of 85 cents' worth of silver It is childish, not to say idiotic in congress to make an effort to compel the business of the country to treat the short silver dollar and the good gold dollar alike But this pretext of attack on the national banks is only one of many. A Washington special traces the movement to several classes of members. First, there are the inflationists and greenbackers, who include among them a certain number of thinly varnished repudiationists secondly the schemers for extensive and costly internal improvements who want unlimited greenbacks for their purposes, third a great number who hope for payment of southern claims but see no chance for it while finances are on a gold basis, and lastly a number of members mainly from the south and west who want to re establish state banks, and who argue that if they could do so they would not be obliged to bank on United States bonds, which are solid capital and hard to get, but could base their issues on state bonds, real estate, crops, and stocks of home corporations, and thus make things lively in their section. Some, no doubt, are honest in this, being too ignorant to see that it would be the worst kind of gambling. But others are repudiationists almost without disguise, and will support any measure that promises an opportunity to injure public and private creditors. They want the poorest money that can be made Beaten in the effort to get fiat paper they now fall back on the silver dollar as the next best, and at present the only promising thing

Senator Bayard of Delaware is almost the only Democrat of prominence in either branch of congress who has not yielded something to the popular folly of financial questions He alone has disdained to play the demagogue upon a dangerous doctrine Had Senator Thurman acted with equal adherence to principle nothing could have prevented his selection as his party's candidate for the presidency At every step Mr Bayard has opposed and denounced the dishonest propositions put forward by his party associates; and in a speech made not long ago he pointed out some of the consequences of the plan now brought forward of substituting greenbacks for bank notes reminding those who heard him that such an act would be the conversion of taxable into untaxable property He would not exempt a new class of property from public burdens

Great stress is laid upon the fact that the supreme court of Florida has ordered the canvassers to count the votes for Bisbee, Republican candidate for congress which had been previously thrown out, and this fact is supposed to furnish proof of remarkable fairness But it is in truth a very cheap and meaningless incident. Bisbee will not get his seat. Upon the first returns his competitor was declared elected and a certificate was issued to him, and that ends the matter. The house will never let Bisbee have the seat to which he has been elected

The treasurer of the United States in his annual report says that large payments of silver dollars have been made at New York and San Francisco, but the coins immediately find their way back to the treasury, usually as receipts from customs The fact that they are sought and paid to the United States, as far as obtainable, in lieu of gold is an incident which shows the estimate in which they are held as an inferior coin People don't want them, and therefore put them right back on the United States so far as they can use them in place of gold

Postmaster General Key says that in three months he will order most of the postal cars now running taken off the railroads unless congress makes speedy and sufficient appropriations to pay for the transportation of the mails He fears that nothing less than the withdrawal of these cars will induce congress to treat the mail service with justice He says he will not overdraw his appropriation a dollar when it is exhausted for if the service is crippled or stops he wants the responsibility thrown on congress where it belongs

A New York dispatch says that the conservative business men are discounting the financial disturbance and no relief expected from the proceedings from congress While it is admitted that the result of the recent elections tends to lessen the danger of any wild schemes becoming successful there is an extended feeling that the president's veto is the only certain reliance for the defeat of the advocates of the cheap silver dollar

No silver has been coined by the Latin money union for two years This is an admission, even by the silver countries, that the free coinage of both metals silver and gold is not practicable They can prevent the debasement of their currency to the silver basis only by stopping their mints

Orson Hyde, one of the twelve apostles of Mormonism died at Spring City Utah a few days ago of heart disease He was 73 years old

GRANT AS A KING

There is a new sensation in connection with the name of Gen Grant. Bulgaria released from Turkish rule is to have an independent government and will need a king, some body therefore, proposes Gen Grant for king of Bulgaria, the suggestion seems to come from Europe, since New York papers are talking about it as if such were the fact The Herald says

If an American were compelled to live in Bulgaria, he would naturally want to be king in self defense, for in any other position life in that country would not be endurable It has often been thought that he would make a good king, and we believe he would in Bulgaria He has qualities that a man must have who is to restore order peace and prosperity to that distracted and unhappy country But it is doubtful whether the powers that be want order there just yet and therefore it is not likely they want Grant. Moreover it is not certain that we can let them have him We want to use him ourselves

The World as a telegraphic special of the 30th November ridicules the matter saying

Grant's name Ulysses may be an objection as the Bulgarians have no love for the Greeks, but the coronation of Ulysses the First, as Emperor of the East at Constantinople would be a fine thing to round off the century with But it will not do for the Bulgarians to take up Grant on the theory that he favors the most perfect equality in political and religious rights, until that little matter of the order about the Jews during the cotton period of the civil war has been more carefully looked into

GAMBLING IN FOOD

The operations of Jim Keene and others in wheat drew the following comments from the New York Times of the 24th ult

Legitimate dealers are very indignant about this entire business Some six weeks ago certain parties who make their living by gambling in stocks entered the market and purchased immense quantities of wheat all over the country They gave out that a foreign war was imminent and that various other disasters were about to happen, which have not taken place and they are now endeavoring by the circulation of other lies about having the market cornered to make people believe that prices are to go up and thus enable themselves to unload at a profit. Meantime with a crop amply sufficient for all possible needs of legitimate business both for home consumption and export demand, the market in this country is being so manipulated that no shipper can calculate even on cable orders two hours ahead Farmers are influenced to hold back their stores of wheat in the hope of higher prices, railroads suffer for lack of transportation, shipping lies idle in the harbor. Thus laboring men teamsters railroad employes longshoremen sailors and others are thrown out of employment and people are forced to pay tribute to a few gamblers in the necessaries of life. There is really no occasion for any speculation of this kind, and those engaged in it on the one side or the other are bound to be hurt in the end but if the bulls succeed in sticking everybody, then the trade of the country will have to suffer The bears are equally regarded by legitimate merchants as scoundrels who ought to be suppressed for without their aid there could be no speculation

Where They Make a Mistake.

[New York Nation]

The Democrats have in their ranks the most ignorant and least reflective portion of American society for which they may or may not be to blame, but they seem to find it impossible to rid themselves of the idea that this is the ruling portion of American society, and that the first condition of party success is to make the platform so low that all this class can jump on it They are, therefore, constantly taking up doctrines which none but the most illiterate and reckless of the community could possibly entertain, and on which no civilized government could be carried on, and then pushing them as if by much speaking the majority was sure to be won over to them as if in other words the sobriety and intelligence and conservatism of the bulk of the population had had nothing to do with the success of the government

Mining on Klamath River.

[From the Yreka Journal]

The river mining on the Klamath has been paying better this season than ever before, every company having been doing well all the way from the mouth of Hamburg down to Oak bar and Hamburg bar, below the mouth of Scott river The companies interested have been taking out from 75 to 125 ounces or more per week, and will continue to do even better, unless heavy storms cause a big rise in the stream to drive them out The general supposition is that we may have a light winter, in consequence of last winter being such a stormy one, in which case the miners may be able to continue operations later than usual, or probably all winter If such should be the case, the gold yield will certainly be the greatest ever realized on this stream during any one season

"Another Good Man Gone Astray"

[From the Chicago Tribune]

THE DAILY OREGONIAN say that Senator Hippie Mitchell 'has gone announcing again" when he told a Washington correspondent that "had he been home two weeks in advance of the meeting of the legislature he would have been re elected, and as it was, he came within twelve votes of an election in a Democratic legislature' The paper referred to says that "it is a matter of record that Mitchell got two votes out ninety," after failing to get a caucus endorsement of the Republican majority "Another good man gone astray"

Presageful Words.

Ominous words were those uttered by the Allgemeine Zeitung at the very moment when the English people were loudest in their jubilation over the upshot of the congress at Berlin Already they read like a prophecy in course of fulfillment

The congress has worked almost by steam to secure the peace of the world but it need not be too proud of its work The first rifle shot fired in Central Asia will find an echo in the renewed roar of cannon in Eastern Europe Once more perhaps the diplomatists have made a mistake

The practical perplexity and indecision of a young lady who has the middle of a Venice but a foot like an ironing board is she clutches her dress and steps on a muddy crossing is the saddest thing we know of

A STRANGE ROBBERY.

A MAN CLAIMS TO HAVE BEEN SHOT AND ROBBED BY TWO MASKED MEN ON THE N P RAILROAD—HE TELLS A QUEER STORY ABOUT THE AFFAIR

A gentleman who came over from Tacoma yesterday furnishes the following particulars of a bold robbery which is alleged to have taken place on the line of the N P railroad between the station [illegible] and Newaukum So far as is known the robbery took place about noon on Monday

[illegible] unable to give the name of [illegible] have been robbed The [illegible] quietly traveled over a [illegible] of the city finally on horseback his [illegible] some suitable farmer [illegible] After traveling [illegible] Tacoma He [illegible] the country but [illegible] He then [illegible] and reached [illegible] coming [illegible] Napavine [illegible] two men who [illegible] of the track [illegible] men caught [illegible] and which [illegible] and stole [illegible] effect in other [illegible] a portion of [illegible] were masks [illegible] definite [illegible] him he says [illegible] track carrying [illegible] reached his [illegible] store [illegible] sum they [illegible] begged hard for [illegible] released and [illegible] then left him alone [illegible] at once [illegible] road and followed that [illegible] He went to [illegible] meeting on board a train [illegible] proceeded as far as Con[illegible]ion where he had his wounds attended to The surgeon extracted the balls and dressed the wounds The ball which took effect in the back part of the head was found lodged against the skull perfectly flattened by the force It is remarkable that the ball did no other or even fracture the skull so close was the muzzle of the weapon to his head that the powder burned the hair Neither wound is considered dangerous When our informant passed Chehalis Station yesterday the man was able to walk around

There seems to be much mystery surrounding this affair At Chehalis the wounded man was questioned very closely by the doctor His story is straight but not a plausible story He says the money of which he was robbed consisted of gold notes and bank notes He said that some gentlemen in Portland who is well known in business circles and a prominent citizen, took the $1,000 from this city over to Tacoma and gave it to him to enable him to purchase farms several farms he stated he had looked at and partially consented to buy When asked the name of the person who took the money over to him the man declined to tell That a sensible man would be walking about the country alone having such a large sum of money on his person seems quite absurd

One of the session men on the road says that he remembers hearing a pistol shot in the direction where the man claims to have been robbed soon after he saw a man come out of the timber and walk northward along the track The person had a wild, wandering look, was very muddy and looked as if he had walked a long distance The same person is said to have got on the north bound train at some of the stations and went through to Tacoma. He claimed to have no money and tried to borrow his passage He wore a very fine pair of boots which attracted some attention and elicited some comment among the passengers When asked by the conductor why he did not sell his boots if he was broke the man replied that he did not wish to dispose of them On reaching Tacoma the man took a steamer for Seattle If there is any truth in the story of the wounded man this person is supposed to have been one of the men concerned in the robbery Those who have examined the spot where the robbers is alleged to have taken place affirm that only the tracks of two men could be found

Altogether it is a rather remarkable case of highway robbery If the wounded man tells a straight story As to the fact of his being shot there can be no question but how by whom and under what particular circumstances must remain a matter of conjecture for the present.

WM CHURCH Sr

Chapter

The bishop on rising thanked the assembly for this kind token of remembrance briefly reviewed the work of the past few years spoke of the joys which he had experienced during that time the trials and difficulties that of at least him the loving support which he had received from the church at large and from the brethren hoping and praying that his life might be spared to the end of another ten years more resolutions to the work and glory of our Heavenly Father will be visible After singing the doxology the meeting separated highly gratified with the work thus begun

Contributions to aid the congregation in building the church may be sent to the Rev John Rosenberg or to the treasurer If persons wish to contribute for any particular part or furniture of the church they may so designate Two stained glass are wanted to perfect the set One rest is but small [illegible] tablets in remembrance of dear ones gone, etc Otherwise all contributions will be applied to the building fund Our liberal hearted citizens will doubtless add a church that is free for all

The Daily Oregonian.

FRIDAY MORNING DEC 13 1878

A TIMELY WORK

The public health associat on at its sess on in Richmond has been discussing the physical causes of epidemical diseases and particularly of yellow fever One of the members of the association in remarking that these diseases spread and carry death by means of poisonous matter disseminated in many ways said For a population to be thus poisoned by its own pollution will one day be deemed ignominious and intolerable A Memphis journal hits the same idea in the remark, We've all been heroic now we've had enough of heroism let's have drainage

The New York Tribune shows that the death rate in certain European cities from typhoid and malarial diseases has been reduced by the reform of sewerage and house drainage the removal of cess pools and the supply of pure water from 0 to 60 per cent while the reduction of the death rate from scarlet fever made by the strict legal regulations for the disinfecting of houses and isolation of patients is as great as that made in the deaths from small pox by the practice of vaccination

These principles are gradually becoming known and established but they make slower progress than they ought in an age that boasts so loudly of its enlightenment It will be an incalculable gain for the human race when even the degree of knowledge now possessed on these subjects shall have driven out that fatal credulity and superstitious terror which have regarded these deadly maladies as visitations of divine displeasure, sent upon the children of men for some inscrutable purpose in the divine economy, and removable by appeals to Heaven instead of by intelligent, energetic and self reliant efforts of our own Discussion of this whole subject in the line pursued by the convention at Richmond will do a great deal of good. This convention is spoken of as the first step in our country in a work which in several of the countries of Europe has for many years been made a national service. We know as yet very little of the laws of the whole class of disorders to which yellow fever is allied but enough is known to prove that each has is own specific cause or germ, that each follows inexorably its own law of development that under certain conditions pestilence will prevail, but that these conditions may be modified by human agency, and that it is through ignorance and neglect of sanitary precautions that pestilence has opportunity for its most deadly work

The philosophers of cheap money in congress are full of wrath They propose to punish the national banks by withdrawing their circulation, because the said banks can not make the 85 cent silver dollar worth a full dollar in gold. Then the bank circulation will have to be withdrawn Let it go The banks will not care much for it There is little profit in it to them anyway But after the bank bills are all retired the cheap silver dollar will be just where it is now No penalties that congress can impose will help it All people except the most incurable idealists know that no legislation can make a good dollar out of 85 cents' worth of silver It is childish, not to say idiotic, in congress to make an effort to control the business of the country to treat the short silver dollar and the good gold dollar alike But this pretext of attack on the national banks is only one of many. A Washington special traces the movement to several classes of members. First, there are the inflationists and greenbackers, who include among them a certain number of thinly varnished repudiationists secondly, the schemers for extensive and costly internal improvements who want unlimited greenbacks for their purposes, third a great number who hope for payment of southern claims, but see no chance for it while finances are on a gold basis, and lastly a number of members mainly from the south and west who want to re establish state banks and who argue that if they could do so they would not be obliged to bank on United States bonds which are solid capital and hard to get, but could base their issues on state bonds, real estate crops, and stocks of home corporations and thus make things lively in their section Some no doubt are honest in this being too ignorant to see that it would be the worst kind of gambling. But others are repudiationists almost without disguise and will support any measure that promises an opportunity to injure public and private creditors. They want the poorest money that can be made Beaten in the effort to get fiat paper, they now fall back on the silver dollar as the next best, and at present the only promising thing

Senator Bayard, of Delaware is almost the only Democrat of prominence in either branch of congress who has not yielded something to the popular folly of financial questions) He alone has disdained to play the demagogue upon a dangerous doctrine Had Senator Thurman acted with equal adherence to principle nothing could have prevented his selection as his party's candidate for the presidency At every step Mr Bayard has opposed and denounced the dishonest propositions put forward by his party associates, and in a speech made not long ago he pointed out some of the consequences of the plan now brought forward of substituting greenbacks for bank notes reminding those who heard him that such an act would be the conversion of taxable into untaxable property He would not exempt a new class of property from public burdens

Great stress is laid upon the fact that the supreme court of Florida has ordered the canvassers to count the votes for Bisbee, Republican candidate for congress which had been previously thrown out, and this fact is supposed to furnish proof of remarkable fairness. But it is in truth a very cheap and meaningless incident Bisbee will not get his seat. Upon the first returns his competitor was declared elected and a certificate was issued to him, and that ends the matter the house will never let Bisbee have the seat to which he has been elected

The treasurer of the United States in his annual report says that large payments of silver dollars have been made at New York and San Francisco, but the coins immediately find their way back to the treasury usually as receipts from customs. The fact that they are sought and paid to the United States, as far as obtainable in lieu of gold is an incident which shows the estimate in which they are held as an inferior coin People don't want them, and therefore put them right back on the United States so far as they can use them in place of gold

Postmaster General Key says that in three months he will order most of the postal cars now running taken off the railroads unless congress makes speedy and sufficient appropriations to pay for the transportation of the mails He fears that nothing less than the withdrawal of these cars will induce congress to treat the mail service with justice He says he will not overdraw his appropriation a dollar when it is exhausted for if the service is crippled or stops he wants the responsibility thrown on congress where it belongs

A New York dispatch says that the conservative business men are discouraging the financial disturbance and manschief expected from the proceedings from congress While it is admitted that the result of the recent elections tends to lessen the danger of any wild schemes becoming successful there is an extended feeling that the president's veto is the only certain reliance for the defeat of the advocates of the cheap silver dollar

No silver has been coined by the Latin monetary union for two years This is an admission, even by the silver countries that the free coinage of both metals silver and gold is not practicable They can prevent the debasement of their currency to the silver basis only by stopping their mints

Orson Hyde one of the twelve apostles of Mormonism, died at Spring City, Utah a few days ago of heart disease He was 73 years old

GRANT AS A KING

There is a new sensation in connection with the name of Gen Grant Bulgaria released from Turkish rule, is to have an independent government and will need a king Somebody therefore, proposes Gen Grant for king of Bulgaria. The suggestion seems to come from Europe since New York papers are talking about it as if such were the fact The Herald says

If an American were compelled to live in Bulgaria, he would naturally want to be king in self defense for in any other position life in that country would not be endurable It has often been thought that he would make a good king and we believe he would in Bulgaria He has qualities that a man must have who is to restore order peace and prosperity to that distracted and unhappy country But it is doubtful whether the powers that be want order there just yet and therefore it is not likely they want Grant. Moreover it is not certain that we can let them have him We want to use him ourselves

Grant's name Ulysses may be an objection as the Bulgarians have no love for the Greeks but the coronation of Ulysses the First, as Emperor of the East, at Constantinople would be a fine thing to round off the century with But it will not do for the Bulgarians to take up Grant on the theory that he favors the most perfect equality in political and religious rights, until that little matter of the order about the Jews during the cotton period of the civil war has been more carefully looked into

The operations of Jim Keene and others in wheat drew the following comments from the New York Times of the 24th ult

Legitimate dealers are very indignant about this entire business Some six weeks ago certain parties who make their living by gambling in stocks entered the market and purchased immense quantities of wheat all over the country They gave out that a foreign war was imminent and that various other disasters were about to happen which have not taken place and they are now endeavoring by the circulation of other lies about having the market cornered to make people believe that prices are to go up and thus enable themselves to unload at a profit. Meantime with a crop amply sufficient for all possible needs of legitimate business, both for home consumption and export demand the market in this country is being so manipulated that no shipper can calculate even on cable orders two hours ahead Farmers are influenced to hold back their stores of wheat in the hope of higher prices, railroads suffer for lack of transportation, shipping lies idle in the harbor. Thus laboring men teamsters railroad employes longshoremen, sailors and others are thrown out of employment and people are forced to pay tribute to a few gamblers in the necessaries of life. There is really no occasion for any speculation of this kind and those engaged in it are on the one side or the other are bound to be hurt in the end but if the bulls succeed in sticking every body, then the trade of the country will have to suffer The bears are equally regarded by legitimate merchants as scoundrels who ought to be suppressed for without their aid there could be no speculation

[New York Nation]

The Democrats have in their ranks the most ignorant and least reflective portion of American society, for which they may or may not be to blame, but they seem to find it impossible to rid themselves of the idea that this is the ruling portion of American society, and that the first condition of party success is to make the platform so low that all this class can jump on it They are, therefore, constantly taking up doctrines which none but the most illiterate and reckless of the community could possibly entertain and on which no civilized government could be carried on and then pushing them as if by much speaking the majority was sure to be won over to them as if in other words, the sobriety and intelligence and conservatism of the bulk of the population had had nothing to do with the success of the government

[From the Yreka Journal]

The river mining on the Klamath has been paying better this season than ever before every company having been doing well, all the way from the mouth of Hamburg down to Oak bar and Hamburg bar, below the mouth of Scott river The companies interested have been taking out from 75 to 120 ounces or more per week, and will continue to do even better, unless heavy storms cause a big rise in the stream to drive them out The general supposition is that we may have a light winter, in consequence of last winter being such a stormy one in which case the miners may be able to continue operations later than usual, or probably all winter If such should be the case the gold yield will certainly be the greatest ever realized on this stream during any one season

"Another Good Man Gone Astray"

[From the Chicago Tribune]

THE DAILY OREGONIAN say that Senator Hiepple Mitchell has gone romancing again" when he told a Washington correspondent that "had he been home two weeks in advance of the meeting of the legislature he would have been re elected, and as I was, he came within twelve votes of an election in a Democratic legislature The paper referred to says that "it is a matter of record that Mitchell got two votes out ninety" after failing to get a caucus endorsement of the Republican majority Another good man gone astray"

Presageful Words.

Ominous words were those uttered by the Allgemeine Zeitung at the very moment when the English people were loudest in their jubilation over the upshot of the congress at Berlin Already they read like a prophecy in course of fulfillment

The congress has worked almost by steam to secure the peace of the world but it need not be too proud of its work The first rifle shot fired in Central Asia will find an echo in the renewed roar of cannon in Eastern Europe Once more perhaps the diplomatists have made a mistake

The painful perplexity and indecision of a young lady who has the ankle of a Venus but a foot like an ironing board as she clatches her dress and steps on a muddy crossing is the saddest thing we know of

FATALLY INJURED.

A correspondent writing from Hubbard station yesterday, sends the following particulars of an accident

While the south bound freight train was entering this place this morning the train was uncoupled for the purpose of throwing in a car by what is known as a fly switch Just previous to their uncoupling the engineer blew a long whistle signaling their approach and immediately before the train two men were walking on the track, who stepped aside when they heard the whistle and after the forward part of the train had passed by one saw Mr. Hess again stepped on the track and not noticing the approach of the remainder of the train was struck on the head and back and it is feared fatally injured. He was brought to this city by the passenger train and is now lying at the hotel in a very critical condition No blame can be attached to the train employes

A STRANGE ROBBERY.

A MAN CLAIMS TO HAVE BEEN SHOT AND ROBBED BY TWO MASKED MEN ON THE N P RAILROAD—HE TELLS A QUEER STORY ABOUT THE AFFAIR

A gentleman who came over from Tacoma yesterday furnishes the following particulars of a bold robbery which is alleged to have taken place on the line of the N P railroad between the stations of Napavine and Newaukum So far as is known the robbery took place about noon on Wednesday

Our informant was unable to give the name of the person who claims to have been robbed The man claims that he has recently traveled over a portion of Washington territory on horseback his purpose being to look out for some suitable farm which he desired to purchase After traveling around for some time he reached Tacoma He says he struck out toward the Cowlitz country but before proceeding far sold his horse He then started on foot toward the railroad and reaching it walked along the track coming north When about midway between Napavine and Newaukum stations he says he met two men who were walking along on the track on each side of the track Just as he came opposite he says the men caught hold of him They grappled with him and who fired him around One of the men drew a pistol and fired at him twice One shot took effect in the thick of the hand and the other on the inside of the wrist of the right arm and ranging back lodged in the fleshy portion of the forearm He states that both men were masked and consequently he could furnish no definite description of the men After shooting him he says the robbers took him away from the track nearly a mile into the wood They then searched his person and found on him forty-five dollars After depriving him of this large sum they concluded to murder him But he begged hard for his life and finally the robbers relented and concluded not to kill him They then left him alone and struck out through the timber He started in the direction of the railroad but before proceeding far came into a wagon road and followed that until he reached the track He went to the station, and getting on board a train bound north proceeded as far as Chehalis station where he had his wounds attended to The surgeon extracted the balls and dressed the wounds The ball which took effect in the back part of the head was found lodged against the skull perfectly flattened by the force It seems remarkable that the ball did not enter or even fracture the skull so close was the muzzle of the weapon to his head that the powder had burned the hair Neither wound is considered dangerous When our informant passed Chehalis station yesterday the man was able to walk around

There seems to be much mystery surrounding this affair As Chehalis the wounded man was questioned very closely by the doctor He tells a straight but not a plausible story He says the money of which he was robbed consisted of gold notes and bank notes. He said that some gentlemen in Portland who is well known in business circles and a prominent citizen took the $1 000 from this city over to Tacoma and gave it to him to enable him to purchase farms several farms he stated he had looked at and peradventure consented to buy When asked the name of the person who took the money over to him the man declined to tell That a sensible man would be walking about the country alone having such a large sum of money on his person seems quite absurd

One of the session men on the road says that he remembers hearing a pistol shot in the section where the man claims to have been robbed soon after he saw a man come out of the timber and walk northward along the track The person he said, was very muddy and looked as if he had walked a long distance The same person is said to have got on the north bound train at one of the stations and went through to Tacoma. He claimed to have had no money and tried to bum his passage He wore a very fine pair of boots which attracted some attention and elicited some comment among the passengers. When asked by the conductor why he did not sell his boots if he was broke the man replied that he did not wish to dispose of them On reaching Tacoma the man took a steamer for Seattle It there is any truth in the story of the wounded man this person is supposed to have been one of the men concerned in the robbery Those who have examined the spot where the robbery is alleged to have taken place, affirm that only the tracks of two men could be found

Altogether this is a singular and remarkable case of high way robbery If the wounded man tells a straight story As to the fact of his being shot twice there can be no question but how by whom and under what particular circumstances it must remain a matter of conjecture for the present

THE SILVER PRUNE QUESTION

PORTLAND Dec 4 1878

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

In THE DAILY OREGONIAN of November 30th I notice quite a lengthy article about the Silver Prune what it is and where it came from in fact I guess Ben Drop or Hot and what the difference and who the producers are that to test the qualities of the Silver Prune He as wants to know what experience these men have had in fruit raising, and how many books and what have they read upon the subject And in conclusion he says if Mr I is honest in his apparent belief that the silver prune is a new variety of fruit for his own reputation he will come to the front himself and give us his name in full We will give him the names and post office address of these and other prominent pomologists and he can inquire of them how many books they have ever read the etc and he may learn that the Silver Prune differs from Coes Golden Drop and how Yours very truly

It is now claimed that the wheat surplus will fall materially short of former estimates in fact which to a great extent induces holders to tighten the screws on exporters and demand higher prices than would be warranted by any conditions attending the European market The Commercial Review of this date says the fact of the shorter surplus coupled with a firm and high market in California and an uncertain state of affairs abroad causes farmers with us to hold with a degree of firmness hardly before known speculators and warehousemen have not held [illegible] rmly as they sold with few exceptions, well up the exceptions hold for extreme figures

From east of the Cascades there will from now on be very small deliveries up to next harvest From the best informed the aggregate will not exceed 2 [illegible]0 tons, and this will come forward next spring Short crop increasing emigration increased land seeded and wheat fed stock accounts for the comparative light receipts from that sce on.

In the valley and Umpqua valley there has been an unusually large amount of land seeded this fall and the weather has been all that could be required to give it good rooting and insure a large outthrow next year

California advices continue to note the absence of rain causing much complaint and firmness on the part of holders there for extreme prices

His Wonderful Success

IN THE TREATMENT OF ALL

Chronic and [illegible]ct [illegible]iseases.

He has astonished the People of this Coast by his skillful Operations.

HE HAS TAUGHT IN HIS

public and private lectures the true principles of health and life to both male and female He has also warned them against habits that would be likely to produce disease in plain and comprehensive language. But where he has found them crushed and broken down by disease, mentally and physically, he has restored them to health and happiness for it is well understood that without health there can be no happiness

has made a specialty in the treatment of the following diseases, Catarrh Bronchitis and all diseases of the throat and chest, by an entirely new system only known to himself, Diseases of the Kidneys and Urinary Organs including Spermatorrhea, Seminal Weakness or premature loss of Manhood In the treatment of these diseases he has made a world wide reputation by his astonishing success not only on this Coast but throughout the whole United States. Diseases of the stomach, bowels liver and kidneys as well as all diseases of the blood and skin he has become master of and never fails to give relief at once and permanently cures the case if he is applied to in time to ladies only for years and is perfectly familiar with all female complaints and understands their delicate and refined organization, as well as the proper remedies which should be used to allay their suffering and restore them to perfect health over most physicians—he can tell the patients' disease the moment he comes in contact with them without any aid from the individual This accounts in part for his great professional success.

THE DOCTOR HAS GIVEN SPECIAL LECTURES

THE DOCTOR HAS THIS ADVANTAGE

All surgical operations can be performed by his skillful hand, and the patient need not fear the result.

will send to those living at a distance and who cannot well visit his office a list of Printed Questions and by the answers when filled out he can tell the disease as well as the proper treatment almost as well as seeing the patient personally and will forward the proper medicines, or instruments to any part of the country with full instructions and advice. Each letter requiring advice or list of questions must contain two postage stamps

Everything strictly confidential and honorable.

THE DOCTOR

has studied in the best Medical Schools in Europe and three years in the Jefferson Medical College at Philadelphia, as more than one of the Medical men of the Medical Faculty in this State can testify
